Staff Application

Staff Conduct Guidelines

As camp staff members, we need to be good examples and witnesses to fellow staff members, campers, visitors, and to the churches and people in the District who we are serving in the camp setting.

In order to fulfill this purpose, the Virginia District has established guidelines for Staff Members. The guidelines outlined herein are not meant to be an all-inclusive listing for all issues or situations, but are intended only to serve as a guide for Staff Members in the areas of general conduct and responsibility. Questions on matters not addressed in these Guidelines should be directed to Camp Leadership as defined below. Each Staff Member must abide by the following general guidelines:

1. Have personal faith in Jesus Christ, repentance from sin, water baptism in the name of Jesus Christ, and the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
2. Be age 18 or older (any exceptions to this must be only with specific permission of Camp Leadership).
3. Conducting oneself everywhere in a manner becoming of a Christian, including morality, honesty, and integrity.
4. Model a Christ-like life in attitude, actions, language, worship, and prayer.
5. Endeavoring to manifest brotherly love and fellowship toward all of God's people.
6. Attending camp services, classes, and/or activities as requested or scheduled by Camp Leadership.
7. Communicate to Camp Leadership if you must leave the grounds so that adequate staffing can be ensured during your absence.
8. Abide by curfew set by Camp Leadership. (Either in dorms or off campground in hotel if applicable)
9. Staff will be required to pay a $35.00 registration fee to cover the cost of food and activities.
10. Staff will follow the camp dress code. No shorts allowed, ladies must wear skirts or dresses with slits no higher than the knee. Make up will not be worn at any time
11. No ornamental jewelry (Necklaces, Body Piercing, ear rings, rings, bracelets.)

Guidelines for interpersonal interactions

1. Staff Member are not to initiate touch with any person of the opposite gender (back- rubs, hugs, etc.) except in the following limited circumstances:
 - Praying with people during camp services. We understand that touch is a normal part of praying with people during services. This type of touch with persons of the opposite gender is permissible, but should be limited to appropriate areas of the body such as head, forehead.
 - Assisting with medical emergencies. Despite the nature of these situations discretion must be used to protect the camper's privacy.
2. Any verbal or non-verbal sexual interaction with a camper or other Staff Member is inappropriate, prohibited, and will not be tolerated.
3. One-on-one interaction must be male-male and female-female only. Individual Staff Members must not meet in private with a child, camper, or other Staff Member of the opposite gender. In the event that a meeting with someone of the opposite gender is necessary, they must meet either in the presence of a third person or in an area with visual access to the public. Examples: (1) Meet in the presence of another worker. (2) Meet in an office with an open door with someone else in the vicinity. (3) Meet in a corner of the sanctuary with other people in the room.
4. Staff Members must spend time primarily with campers of the same gender.
5. Staff Members must report to Camp Leadership any of the following situations immediately:
 - Campers refusing to abide by the camp guidelines;
 - Physical abuse reported to you;
 - Sexual abuse or inappropriate contact reported to you;
 - Any camper's claim that he/she is suicidal (take them seriously).
6. Staff Members are not allowed to administer corporal punishment at any time.

Guidelines for accidents & injury

1. If a Staff Member or a camper is injured, the Staff Members first priority is to seek appropriate medical assistance for the injured person.
2. If any Staff Member or a camper is injured, Staff Members must immediately call for the medical staff person. If the seriousness of the situation warrants, Staff Members must immediately call 911 for medical attention.
3. All injuries and accidents must be reported immediately to Camp Leadership.

Sexual Harassment Policy

(Definition) - Sexual harassment includes any form of unwelcome or nonconsensual sexual advances, request for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical contact of a sexual nature, when (1) submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. It may include but is not limited to:

- Sexually oriented jokes, comments, verbal "kidding," or abuse.
- Suggestive, inappropriate, or graphic comments about a person's body, appearance, or actions.
- Sexually suggestive gestures or actions, including physical actions such as patting
- Pinching, constant brushing against another's body, or blocking another's movement.
- Subtle pressure for sexual activity or demands for sexual favors, whether or not accompanied by a threat.
- Sexual assault.
- Condoning any of the above.

Procedure for complaints

1. A complaint of sexual harassment should be brought to Camp Leadership, who will take the following steps.
 - Arrange to minimize contact between the parties until the situation is resolved.
 - Conduct a complete investigation, including interviews with any other parties who may have knowledge of the incidents.
 - Make a judgement regarding the allegations; determine and carry out appropriate disciplinary actions; and notify accuser(s) of any disciplinary actions(s) taken against the accused.
2. A complaint against any member of the Camp Leadership should be brought to the Virginia District Board, who will investigate the matter.
